PhD Funding Opportunity 2011-12

GUIDELINES FOR APPLICANTS

Graduate Scholarship in CATALAN

The University of Manchester with the generous support of the Institut Ramon Llull are pleased to offer a Graduate Scholarship in Catalan. The Graduate Scholarship must be undertaken in conjunction with a PhD programme of study in the department of Spanish, Portuguese and Latin American Studies. Please note that preference will be given to students wishing to work on Catalan linguistics or Catalan film/media studies. The holder of the full-time Graduate Scholarship will be required to teach for 3 hours per week.

The full-time Graduate Scholarship award comprises two elements:

- the payment of fees directly to the University: fees will be paid at the Home/EU rate.
- a bursary of £6,500 per annum, which is paid in quarterly instalments by bank transfer (by arrangement with the Student Services Centre).

For the Graduate Scholarship you must apply and have been accepted for a PhD programme of study in the department of Spanish, Portuguese & Latin American Studies. Applicants must be holding an offer of a place by the closing date specified below in order to be included in the competition. To ensure that you are holding an offer of a place by the closing date, you are advised to submit your online application for a place on the programme no later than Friday 1 April 2011.

The Graduate Scholarship is available only to new PhD applicants, not currently registered PhD students. It is anticipated that decisions will be made in June 2011. Please note, only successful and reserve candidates will be contacted.

The closing date for the Graduate Scholarship competition is Friday 15 April 2011.

Please note, applicants may be invited for (telephone) interview if deemed necessary.

Please note, training may be required for all new Graduate Scholarships; further information will be communicated as appropriate.
